Romano
Bonaparte

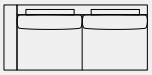

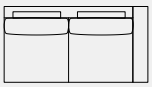

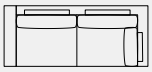

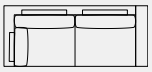

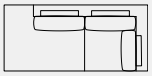

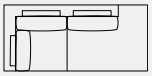

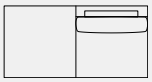

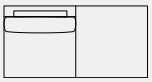

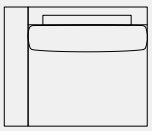

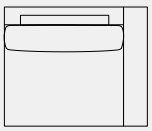

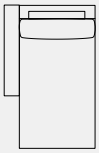

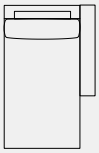

Chic European style collection that features a low profile frame and steel base that gives the impression that the piece is floating. The optional wood base changes up the look for a rich and and warm anchor for your space. Choice of different cushion fills, hundreds of fabrics, and multiple sizes provides thousands of potential configurations to suit your personal style and space. The bolster on the back not only provides exceptional comfort and support, but is a distinctive decorative element that makes this collection look great from all angles. For an extra design touch, the bolster can be upholstered in a contrasting fabric making your sofa a truly distinct statement of your style.
